TOBACCO ACREAGE IS MUCH LARGER

Prospects Are for 18 Per Cent Increase

OVER THE YIELD OF LAST YEAR

Canvass of Productive States Shows General Improvement Over 1911.

BASED ON THE AVERAGE YIELD

The Cincinnati Enquirer says:
Unless all indications fail and disastrous conditions confront the tobacco crop of the United States during the growing season, the 1912 yield, while establishing no new record, will be considerably heavier than last year.

There is an apparent tendency in practically every section of the country to plant more tobacco than a year ago, except perhaps throughout the cigar-growing sections of Ohio, where the farmers have become discouraged because of the prices which have prevailed for product the past few years.
Notwithstanding the uncertain weather conditions which have been experienced in many parts of the tobacco-growing regions, the crop seems to have gone into the field for the most part under fairly favorable conditions.

The talk about the ten-year pooling movement in Kentucky appears to have carried but little weight with the growers, and it is doubtful if this had any effect on the contemplated acreage whatsoever.
The increased planting in Kentucky,
while not of significantly large proportions, leaves little room to doubt that even with poor growing weather, the yield will be heavier than in 1911. Practically all the large producing States, excepting Ohio, show
a wider area planted to tobacco this year, notably in North Carolina,
South Carolina, Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia and Wisconsin.
The lateness of the season
through the Middle West, including the vast burley belt of Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana, appears to have been more talk than fact, and while the plants in many sections went into the field from one to three weeks later than a normal season,
the delay seems to have been beneficial to the growth of the plants in the beds rather than otherwise.
Another thing that has helped materially in setting out a larger acreage this year is the abundance of healthy, thrifty plants, and the unusual lack of serious trouble with the plant beds.

A careful canvass by Enquirer correspondents in the various counties of Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana and in the various tobacco producing States of the country, indicates a total area for 1912 amounting to 1,631,972 acres. This is a gain of 78,314 acres over the area estimated at the beginning of the planting season in 1911, and a clear gain over the harvested acreage of last year, amounting to 154,283 acres,
or 15 per cent.

Calculations based on the average yield per acre for the past ten years in the various States indicate a total tobacco yield for the United States this year of 911,098,000 pounds. This is an increase over the harvested yield of last year of 171,038,100 pounds, or about 18 per cent. It is also interesting to note in this connection that the 1912 estimate falls short of the bumper crop of 1910 by only 19, 680,095 pounds.

Kentucky, the largest tobacco producing center of the world, regardless of the predictions made earlier in the season that there would be a shrinkage in the acreage, according to carefully compiled figures, will not only show a good-sized gain in the area planted as contrasted with last year, but both the acreage and probable yield will not be far under the figures for 1910. North Carolina, the second largest producing State, reports a planted area of 213,000 acres, an increase over last year of 13,000 acres. The sister State of South Carolina has also extended the tobacco acreage somewhat this season. In Ohio burley has never received much attention from the growers except in a few counties

bordering the Ohio river. As previously stated, the low prices paid
for recent crops of Ohio-grown cigar leaf have caused a decided inclination on the part of farmers to turn their attention to other products.

On the northern border Wisconsin stands out as one of the prime factors among the States producing cigar leaf. The planting this year has not only been heavier than last season, but the conditions augur well for a heavier crop. Notable increases in acreage are also recorded for Pennsylvania. In the sun-cured and dark districts of Virginia, and also in the New England States promises will be borne out,
by reason of the favorable reports
made by Connecticut and Massachusetts. This section, in particular spots, starts the tobacco growing season under much more favorable circumstances than obtained at the corresponding time last year.

intoxicating liquors, mixtures or decoctions, either a ste agent of the buyer or agent of the seller of said liquors, mixtures or decoctions,
either for or without compensation
in any county, district, precinct,

THE NEW STATE PRIMARY LAW

Presents No Difficulties
In Operation.

ELECTION OCCURS AUGUST 3

Voting Expected to Pass Off Smoothly in the Affected Districts.

WHERE CONTESTS WILL OCCUR

Dr. C. F. Crecelius, Secretary of State, says that he believes the first State-wide primary, which will be held August 3, will pass off as smoothly as a general election. He has had many inquiries about the law, copies of which he mailed to all election officers and those directly interested; but there have been no problems of any grave nature
submitted since the Court of Appeals upheld the statute.

The law fixes the date for the primary on the first Saturday in August preceding the general election in November at which the candidates to be nominated are voted on. A special registration will be held at the offices of the County Clerks fourteen days before the primary, which will be July 20. Those who were absent from home or prevented by illness from registering at the last registration, persons who have since become of age, or who have become qualified to vote at the next general election since the registration day, are entitled to be registered under oath.

Officers of the primary are appointed by the County Board of Election Commissioners, just as for the general election, but the names from which selections are made are to be submitted by party committees to the board fifteen days before the primary, or by July 19,
this year.

The Secretary of State considers it fortunate that the "try-out" of the primary law comes in an "off"
year, politically. Three congressional races are furnishing the interest for the State-at-large. These are the First, Third and Eighth.
Nominations were made in the Sixth and Seventh before the primary law became effective, and Congressman Owsley Stanley, in the Second; Ben Johnson, in the Fourth; Swager Sherley, in the Fifth, and W. J. Fields, in the Ninth, have no opposition.

Commonwealth's Attorney Denny P. Smith, of Trigg; County Judge Alben Barkley, of McCracken;
the Hon. John K. Hendrick, of Paducah, and Jake Corbett, of Ballard, are having a battle royal for Senator-elect Ollie James' seat.

In the Third, Congressman R. Y.
Thomas and John Rhea, brother of State Treasurer Thomas S. Rhea, are making the liveliest fight the people of that section have seen in many years.

Judge Jere A. Sullivan, of Richmond, and Congressman Harvey Helm are both making a close canvass of the Eighth district.

While the primary fights are on,
and the weather hot, political leaders are not pushing the National race to the front. The candidates will be formally notified of their nominations next month, at which time the campaign speeches will be sounded, and then National politics again will come to the front. In the meantime, the situation is being viewed and tentative plans are being considered for the organization. It is reported that the names of Judge S. W. Hager, of Owensboro, who was at the head of the Wilson organization in Kentucky; Judge Allie W. Young and Judge Samuel Wilson, of Lexington, are being mentioned for campaign chairman in Kentucky.—

BRADLEY RULES DESPITE DESIRE OF THE PEOPLE

The Todd County Times says:
The Republican platform speaks long and loud of government "of the people, by the people and for the people," and Senator W. O.

Bradley speaks long and loud for that platform. But, just as a sample of the sincerity of the g. o. p.,
make the Guthrie post-office case.
Every business and professional man, every minister and teacher in the town of Guthrie, with the single exception of one merchant who was not presented with the same, signed W. C. Balee's petition for re-appointment. In fact, the petition contained 1,148 names, practically all the patrons of the office. But Mr. Balee was not re-appointed, because Mr. Bradley did not desire it.
So far as Kentucky is concerned the Republican party believes in a government by Bradley, of Bradley and for the exclusive gratification of Bill Bradley's desires.

STATE CROP CONDITIONS MATERIALLY IMPROVED

Frankfort, Ky., July 12.—The monthly crop report of the Agricultural Department shows the condition of corn to be 84½ per cent of an average crop; oats, 92½ per cent; potatoes, 96½ per cent. Estimated yield of wheat per acre is 10.2 bushels; of rye, 12½ bushels, and barley 26.2 bushels.

Ninety-one per cent. of the dark tobacco was transplanted June 1
and the present condition is 90 per cent. of an average crop. Burley section transplanted 61 per cent. of crop; present condition 86 per cent.
Average fruit crop: Apples, 75 per cent.; peaches, 70 per cent.; pears, 70 per cent.; plums, 89½ per cent.;
grapes, 91 per cent.

Pasture conditions throughout the State are excellent. In many counties, continued rainfall retarded cultivation of crops, corn and tobacco especially. Taken as a whole, the report for July shows crop conditions brighter than was shown June 1.

LIGHTNING BUGS CAUSE TERROR IN POWDER MILL

Aetna, Ind., July 12.—Thousands of lightning bugs caused terror among workmen employed in the powder mills here last night, following a thunderstorm. The little insects, driven from the Kankakee marshes by the storm, settled down upon a tank containing several hundred gallons of nitroglyc-erine. The employees saw the brilliantly illuminated bugs near the great tank and immediately scattered, running terror-stricken in all directions in the fear that the tank
would explode.

It required nearly an hour for foremen of the mills to dispel the fears of the employees and get them to return to work.

PRESIDENT TOUCHED BY THE POEM OF WOMAN

Washington, July 12.—A prisoner mother's poem, woven about the desolation of her only child, so touched President Taft's heart that he to-day commuted to expire at once the five and one-half years' sentence of Mae E. Brown, convicted at Salt Lake City on June 20, 1911, of violating the white slave law. The trial Judge and United States Attorney indorsed the woman's appeal for clemency, the first granted in a white slave case.

WILSON ADVISES STRICT ECONOMY

Says Business and Politics
Are Inseparable.

HE URGES CONSTANT SAVING

And Speaks in Behalf of the Great Brotherhood Of Mankind.

UPHOLDS LIFE'S HIGH IDEALS

Atlantic City, N. J., July 12.—
Gov. Wilson talked for half an hour to 500 men this afternoon on the necessity of working to-day for results to-morrow and on the evil of individual and national extravagance.

The Governor's audience was composed of delegates to the national convention of the United States Building and Loan League, and the address he delivered was one of welcome, on behalf of New Jersey.

Earlier in the afternoon he told 5,000 residents of Atlantic City
and their friends that their town was in need of moral pride; that a man was ashamed to be caught in a dirty trick and that a community
ought to be ashamed to be caught in a dirty practice. This was at the cornerstone laying of the new Y. M.
C. A. building.

"I have sometimes heard men
say that politics must have nothing to do with business," he told the building and loan delegates, "and that business has nothing to do with politics, yet when you think of it seriously, there can be no separation between business and any other interest in life.

"One of the things that strikes
me is that the characteristic feature of an active life is co-operation. We alone among animals that frequent the surface of the earth associate ourselves together
in common endeavor when we subordinate a certain amount of individual interest to the common interest which we realize sustains the influence of the individual.

"The reason we are interested in the postal savings banks and hope that they may develop very much beyond the present meager beginning is that we want men who have only pennies to save, to save them;
we want men who have only little glimpses of the future not to lose those glimpses; we do not want to discourage the most humble against entertaining a confident hope for tomorrow, because the man who does not look for to-morrow cannot sus-tain the enterprises of national life.

"America, among all the countries in the world, needs a cultivated providence, and I think it needs
a cultivated providence with a big
'P.' America is recognized as a spendthrift country, because in America we think we have inexhaustible resources, but as our population thickens and our resources are more and more exploited, and the difficulties of our public problems increase, we are more and more aware that we are in need of a providence in the future.

"We should all make a greater security for the to-morrow, and if we do this, the sooner we will be able to quiet the disturbances and disquietudes of our working classes.

"We are trying to create everywhere in the men of large business this fundamental conception that any man who handles any affair bigger than himself is a trustee for the rest of the community. In proportion as we lift ourselves to the full dignity of that conception, we shall lift ourselves above the difficulties of private life against all the confusions and difficulties of public life as well."

BRYAN'S TRIBUTE TO THE DEMOCRATIC DONKEY

"The donkey is really a better emblem than the elephant for a party. This was impressed upon my mind when I visited other countries. I found him to be an inhabitant of all lands where industry prevails, and that everywhere, he serves the people, and that, too, the common people. He is not an aristocrat.

"Whether you visit the mountains of the West, the densely populated regions of the Orient, the fertile valley of the Nile, or the sacred soil of the Holy Land, you will find the donkey—patient, persistent and always at work.

"The elephant, on the contrary,
is only to be found in certain latitudes, and is seldom seen, except on dress parade. If greatness is to be measured by service, instead of
by size or appearance, the position of honor must be given to the faithful donkey. As the Democratic party is becoming a universal party,
and is everywhere justifying its claims to the confidence of the people by the service it is rendering them, it is entirely appropriate that it should prefer the donkey to the elephant for an emblem."

WILL BEE TAFT CANNOT CARRY SEVEN STATES

Louisville, Ky., July 12.—A well known local sporting man, who has heretofore been noted for his ability to prognosticate and foretell election results, is out with an offer to bet $1,000 even that no one can name seven States that President
Taft will carry this fall.

At the first glance this looks like a foolish proposition, but when one begins to look over the list of States, it does not seem such an easy proposition.

Will Mr. Taft carry Oregon, Idaho, Nevada, Montana, Wisconsin, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, New York, Rhode Island, Maine, Connecticut or Delaware? Which seven will President Taft carry?

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President—Gov. Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey.
For Vice President—Gov. Thos. R. Marshall, of Indiana.

Say, is it not enough for you not to mention it to anybody?

During this hot weather you had better not try to run anybody out of town. The exercise would probably be too much for you.

The steam-roller which started at Chicago is still rumbling around in Kentucky, beveling off some raw edges that remained on the official circle.

The registration which precedes the Democratic primary election to be held the first Saturday in August applies only in cities where registration is usual.

Not much danger in getting those two names of Wilson and Willson mixed now. The latter alleged "Gov." has passed into the misty paths of oblivion.

Woodrow Wilson, A. B., A. M., LL. B., Ph. D., LL. D., Lit. D.; Thomas R. Marshall, A. B., A. M., LL. D. Also nominees for President and Vice President.

After all is said and read and done, the strongest plank in any political platform is the personality and integrity of the principal person running upon it.

"Get out of my way!" said the fellow who was running from a ghost, to a rabbit in his pathway. "and let somebody run what can run." Teddy seems to have heard of this.

Gov. Wilson is an expert shorthand writer and uses this method to take down his thoughts in anticipation of a speech. He also has a longhand reach when it comes to national conventions.

Yes, Maria, you can use your vacuum cleaner for a stomach pump, but it would be best to get an experienced hand to handle it, otherwise the patient might be turned wrong side out.

The design of the five-cent piece is soon to be changed and the figure of a buffalo is to displace the Goddess of Liberty. Why not make it a goat? This would symbolize what is gotten from the people in the general purchasing power of the coin.

Woodrow Wilson and Grover Cleveland both dropped their first names after arriving at voting age. This makes the senior scribe feel like he's right up in the push, in this matter, at least, for he did the same thing. His first name is "Gawge."

There can be no doubt of the indication that President Taft's candidacy for re-election will be heavily financed by the protected trusts and big moneyed interests. In the Presidential race it will be simply the will of the people against a mountain of money.

At present the popular will of the people in Kentucky, in the matter of official service, is being made subservient to the desires of W. O. Bradley. He seems to be the boss and dictator of his party in the State, and President Taft does just as Billie O. says.

The Chicago papers claim that living is fifty per cent. cheaper in that city now than a year ago. It is also said that human life is considered cheaper there than in any other large city of the country, and it is dangerous to live there even at a fifty per cent. reduction on expenses.

There never was a time when farmers should stand more firmly together in their organization than the present. It means better prices for farm products and more prosperous times in general. In organization there is strength, and while the way sometimes seems long and tedious, the reward at the end is worth more than the effort.

Few people except those initiated into the task of getting out a country newspaper understand just what is required of the rural scribe. In a big daily newspaper office the work is divided into a dozen or more departments, including managing editor, city editor, society editor, exchange editor and anywhere from six to a dozen reporters and proof readers, each of whom is assigned to a separate task. The country editor must "cover" all these jobs, and then some. Yet there are some people who will almost have a spasm if the country sheet contains a few errors or fails to get one or two current items of news, and imagine how easily they could take the editor's place and beat his best efforts.

The personal records of Woodrow Wilson and Grover Cleveland are similar in some respects. Wilson had a first name, Thomas, but dropped it, as did Cleveland drop his Stephen. The fathers of each were Presbyterian ministers, and both were associated with Princeton, N. J. The parallel will be further carried out in November.

Under Kentucky's new liquor law, a heavy fine is imposed upon the person who even procures liquor for another, or acts as agent in any way. This should be the means of rounding up quite an army of no-account negroes in some communities who are always ready to get the stuff for a prospective customer and who can be easily identified.

A young man in New York is suing a telegraph company because it misspelled a word in a wire message to his affianced, making it read "I leave you forever" instead of "I love you forever." Upon receiving the message, the young lady skiddooed and married another man without further ado. It would seem that the said young man ought to be glad that he missed being wed to a girl who would so easily change her mind and who evidently had at least two lovers on her "string."

JUDGE HAGER RECEIVES DESERVED COMPLIMENT

The Hancock Clarion says: The Clarion has always been regretful over the defeat in 1907 of S. W. Hager for Governor. We believed in him and we disbelieved in the man at whose hands he suffered defeat. The history of the Governor's office for the last term and the conduct of Mr. Hager, taken together, confirm our view of both men. Wilson can never come back, but Hager can. In fact, he has already come back. He has made good in championing the right man at the right time for the Presidency. He was chosen State manager for Woodrow Wilson in the recent campaign, and while the vote of Kentucky was technically given to Clark at Baltimore, the good work of Hager was and is and will be felt until the November results show that Kentucky is in the Wilson column by several times ten thousand. He is also, one of the State election commissioners. Hager is genial, genteel and capable, and incidentally let it not be forgotten that he recently became our neighbor, leaving the Blue Grass for the Pennyrile and taking over into the field of Democratic journalism the Owensboro Inquirer, which he has greatly improved to the advantage of the party also. Owensboro is notable for many things of interest and value, but we especially congratulate the city now on having, as a permanent fixture, in addition to the many other great Democrats and good things, the Hon. S. W. Hager.

The Choice of a Husband Is too important a matter for a woman to be handicapped by weakness, bad blood or foul breath. Avoid these kill-hopes by taking Dr. King's Life Pills. Hair Falling?

You certainly cannot lose your hair and keep it, too. Which shall it be? Lose? Then do nothing. Keep? Then use Ayer's Hair Vigor. That is about all there is to it. Ayer's Hair Vigor is also a splendid hair-dressing and hair-tonic. It keeps the hair soft and smooth and greatly promotes its growth. It does not color the hair. Consult your doctor freely. Doctors are studying these hair questions much more than in former days.

BIG DIFFERENCE IN PLATFORMS

Of the Two Great Political Parties.

ONE PLAIN, THE OTHER EVASIVE

Comparison Which Shows a Striking Contrast Between the Two.

SOME ILLUSTRATIVE POINTS

(By C. H. Tavenner, Special Cor.)
Washington, July 13.—There is a vast difference between the platforms adopted by the Republicans at Chicago and the Democrats at Baltimore. The Republican platform is thoroughly reactionary and standpat. It does not concede that the last Republican administrations have erred in their tariff policy, notwithstanding the almost universal verdict of the country to the contrary. This platform still prates about "protecting American workmen," and "maintaining the American standard of wages," when every citizen with a grain of intelligence knows that both of these are shams and hypocrites. The Republican platform is also evasive, so that in the remote event of Republican success at the polls, it could be interpreted in any way the high tariff bosses might want it interpreted.

The Democratic platform, on the other hand, is specific and definite. It pledges the party to an exact policy, without any attempt at evasion. It promises, not only to "revise the tariff," but to "revise it downward." The wording is so plain and so definite that a child could understand its meaning and intent. Here, briefly, are some of the important promises in the Democratic document:

- 1—A tariff for revenue only. Immediate revision downward. Trust-controlled products to go on the free list.
- 2—Civil and criminal prosecution of trusts. Laws to stop monopoly and stock watering. Amendment to make the Sherman law effective.
- 3—A demand for the ratification of the amendments for an income tax and direct election of Senators.
- 4—Publicity for all recommendations, on which Presidential appointments are made; for the ownership of newspapers, and for all campaign funds in national elections.
- 5—Presidential primaries and popular election of national committeemen. The use of money by corporations at elections to be made unlawful.
- 6—A single term for the President.
- 7—Supervision of railroad, telegraph, telephone and express rates.
- 8—Revision of the banking laws to prevent concentration and misuse of money. No government deposits in favored banks.
- 9—Laws to improve the rivers and prevent floods.
- 10—Restriction of the judiciary to its proper functions.
- 11—Philippine independence, and territorial government for Alaska. Trial by jury in cases of indirect contempt. Encouragement of the merchant marine, but no subsidies. Parcels post and postal express, and extension of rural delivery. Conservation that will not interfere with the rights of bona fide settlers.
- 12—Extension of the civil service, and no abridgment of the right of federal employees to petition for redress of grievances.

Summer colds are hard to get rid of and frequently lead to asthma, bronchitis and hay fever. Do not let your cold get a hold on you, but use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for quick relief. W. H. Allen, Chelsea, Wis., says: "We prefer Foley's Honey and Tar Compound to other cough medicines because it quickly cures coughs and colds. It will ward off a cold if taken in time." Contains no opiates. Is safe for children. Remember the name, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and accept no substitute. For sale by all dealers.

REPORT CROP CONDITIONS BETTER THAN LAST YEAR

Washington, July 15.—The plentiful harvests of important crops of the country, indicated by the July crop report of the Department of Agriculture, will extend also to the minor crops to a great extent.

Conditions of all crops were materially better on July 1 than on the same date last year. The crop reporting board estimates they are 5.9 per cent. better. Comparing their condition with the average of recent years, it is somewhat lower, about 1.2 per cent.

The area planted to the important crops—corn, wheat, oats, barley, potatoes, tobacco, flax, rice and cotton—is estimated at fully 241,155,000 acres. While this aggregate area is 1.8 per cent. less than the area of the same crops last year, it is 1.9 per cent. greater than in 1910, and 6.9 per cent. greater than in 1909.

"MY FIGHT; MY VICTORY."

SAYS TEDDY OF LORIMER
Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 13.—"The Lorimer fight was my fight and the victory was my victory," exultantly shouted Colonel Roosevelt to-night when informed of the action of the Senate.

"Never would there have been any serious attempt to unseat Lorimer had it not been for me. The whole thing began when I refused to dine with Lorimer at Hamilton club two years back. In his speech he blamed me. I wanted him to do so."

Roosevelt spent a good part of to-day discussing the planks of the platform of the coming Chicago convention. He will outline his views in a series of speeches within the next three weeks.

ANOTHER TRAIN WRECK KILLING MANY PEOPLE

Overland Express On C., B. & Q. Telescoped By Fast Train Running in Rear.

Chicago, July 14.—Sixteen persons were killed and fifteen to twenty were injured in a wreck on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad, at Western Springs, a suburb of Chicago, at 6:30 a. m., to-day.

Coming through a fog with supposedly a clear track ahead, train No. 8, a fast mail, ran at full speed into the rear of train No. 2, known as the Overland Express from Denver, which was standing still on the track, telescoping two of the Overland Pullman cars.

Railroad officials refuse to fix blame until after the wreck has been investigated thoroughly. Mrs. F. A. Wilcox, who was in charge of the tower from which the block signals were controlled, said she was certain the block was thrown against both trains. She collapsed after the accident and is still in a highly nervous condition.

The engine of No. 8 plowed through the rear car, halving it and crushing out the lives of helpless passengers, many of whom still were in their berths. On into the second coach the engine then sped. Half way through that car it veered to the left, derailing the sleeper. The engine was entirely stripped when it stopped.

Fire, starting from the gas lights in the sleepers, then broke out. Many victims, pinioned down by heavy timbers and iron, pleaded for death. Members of the fire departments of Western Springs and La Grange, were on the scene within a few minutes after the wreck occurred, and they extinguished the fire.

Goals are believed to have robbed the dead before they reached the morgue in LaGrange. More than a dozen large diamond sets are missing from jewelry, and although most of the dead appeared to have been persons in comfortable circumstances, a dime was the largest sum of money found on any of the bodies.

An increasing number of people report regularly of the satisfactory results from taking Foley Kidney Pills and commend their healing and curative qualities. Foley Kidney Pills are a carefully prepared medicine, guaranteed to contain no harmful or habit-forming drugs. They can have only a beneficial effect when used for kidney and bladder troubles, for backache, rheumatism, weak back or lumbago. Never sold in bulk. Put up in two sizes in sealed bottles. The genuine always in a yellow package. For sale by all dealers.

"MT. WATTERSON AGAIN ERUPTIVE"

Says W. J. Bryan of Kentucky Editor.

ANIMUS OF ATTACK GOES BACK

To Notable Year of 1896. Declares Nebraskan, in Peppery Reply.

CLARK AND HEARST PRUNED

Lincoln, Neb., July 12.—"Mt. Waterson is again in eruption" is the way W. J. Bryan begins his reply to the recent attacks upon him by the Kentucky editor as an aftermath of the Baltimore convention. Mr. Bryan also hits some sharp raps at Champ Clark, W. K. Hearst, John B. Stanchfield and others.

He dismisses Mr. Clark with two brief paragraphs in the forthcoming issue of his Commoner, saying: "If, as we now learn, Mr. Bryan has been under suspicion for twelve years in the Clark household, how shall we explain the fact that the Clark orators were so profuse in their declarations of loyalty to Bryan and Bryanism?"

"If Mr. Clark ever writes an article on Mr. Underwood's Progressiveness, it is a safe guess that he will not quote any of the eulogies he formerly pronounced on the distinguished reactionary from Alabama."

On Mr. Hearst he is more severe, intimating it will be relief to Governor Wilson if Hearst withdraws his support.

Mr. Bryan says he has become so accustomed to abuse from Colonel Waterson that it no longer hurts him much. Then he proceeds to show what he calls the animus of the Kentuckian's enmity in the following terms:

"Mr. Waterson's forked tongue—to change the figure—attempted to inject its venom into Mr. Bryan's political flesh as far back as 1896. 'No compromise with dishonor' he barked through the cable, but he found on investigation that he had bitten the cash box of his paper instead of the Democratic candidate. "In the spring of 1904 Mr. Waterson felt it his patriotic duty to denounce Mr. Bryan for opposing Mr. Parker. He even accused Mr. Bryan of supporting Mr. Hearst and has never had the fairness to commend Mr. Bryan to refusing to second the nomination of Mr. Hearst—a refusal which explains Mr. Hearst's hatred ever since."

"In 1908 Mr. Waterson led Wall street in its efforts to defeat Mr. Bryan's third nomination, and only desisted when friends convinced him that the logic of the situation required Mr. Bryan's nomination."

"When the present campaign opened Mr. Waterson championed the cause of Mr. Wilson but repudiated him when Governor Wilson refused to accept a campaign contribution from Thomas F. Ryan, and admitted on inquiry that Mr. Harvey's support was a liability instead of an asset."

"After abandoning Mr. Wilson, Mr. Waterson took up Mr. Clark, but gave him a tardy and lukewarm support."

"Now that Mr. Clark refused to take sides in the temporary chairmanship fight between Mr. Parker and Mr. Bryan, and more especially since he (Mr. Clark) can see no reason for consulting the ninety delegates from New York, whom Mr. Murphy used to carry out the wishes of the plunderbund—now the furnace of Mr. Waterson's wrath is heated seven times hotter than before."

"Well, Mr. Bryan confesses that he has not tried to please Mr. Waterson—that may account for any popularity Mr. Bryan enjoys."

What Makes a Woman?

One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation. Put into it health, strength and she may rule a kingdom. But that's just what Electric Bitters give her. Thousands bless them for overcoming fainting and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, backache and tired, listless, worn out feeling. "Electric Bitters have done me a world of good," writes Eliza Pool, Depew, Okla., "and I thank you, with all my heart, for making such a good medicine." Only 50c. Guaranteed by James H. Williams. m

Listen! It's a picnic to deal where you can depend upon the good quality of what you buy.

None but upright quality goods ever come into our store. We won't let them.

Don't think, because we say this, that our goods are priced up sky-high. Exactly the opposite is so. Good clothes take up no more room than inferior kinds; it takes less time to sell high-quality stuff—it looks well and sells itself; on high-class goods our percentage of profit is less than it would have to be on low-class stuff.

It is economy to buy our upright quality merchandise.

BROADIE HOWARD DIES AT HOME IN OWENSBORO

Samuel Broadie Howard, one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of Daviess county, died at 5 o'clock Thursday morning of a complication of diseases, following an illness lasting for several months, at his home, No. 806 West Eleventh street, Owensboro. Mr. Howard was 68 years old. He was born in September, 1844. He was reared by his uncle, from whom he received his name. Mr. Howard never saw the inside of a school-house until he was 12 years old, and attended only a few months until he was 21. He received his education at Bethel college, in Logan county, and returning home, he taught school six years in Daviess and McLean counties.

In 1872 Mr. Howard purchased a fine farm in the Green Brier neighborhood, where he lived the most of his life, until the past few years, when he took up his residence in Owensboro.

Mr. Howard was married to Miss Mattie E. Bell, of Ohio county, on April 14, 1881, who survives, together with four daughters, Mrs. J. W. Linton, of Russellville; Mrs. Todd Gregory, and Misses Grace and Kittie Howard, and son, E. M. Howard, of Globe, Ariz. He is also survived by our brothers, Kinchen Howard, of Chicago; Joe Howard, of Green Brier neighborhood; Phil S. Howard, of Daviess county, and three sisters, Mrs. W. T. Davis, of Utica; Mrs. Samuel McCormick, of Masonville, and Miss Melissa Howard, of Utica.

Mr. Howard was a member of the Third Baptist church, and always took a great interest in church work.

One-Third of Crop Damaged.

The district meeting of the Green River Tobacco Growers' Association was held in Owensboro last week. There were delegates from the five counties embracing the district.

Reports throughout the district showed that about 35 per cent of the tobacco crop was damaged by the recent heavy rains.

It was voted that a monthly report should be sent to the headquarters of the association in Owensboro, and with that view, four men from each Magisterial district in the entire tobacco district were appointed to make this report.

THE OLD LEADERS ARE AGAIN NAMED

As Leaders of the Prohibition Movement.

CHAFIN AND WATKINS CHOSEN

No Action Was Taken on the Proposal To Change Party's Name.

AS TO THE CHURCH AND STATE

Atlantic City, N. J., July 12.—The National Prohibition Convention concluded its labors here tonight with the nomination of the party standard-bearers of four years ago—Eugene W. Chafin, of Arizona, for President, and Aaron S. Watkins, of Ohio, for Vice President. In each case the nomination was made by acclamation after a single ballot had indicated the preference of the delegates.

Four candidates for President were placed in nomination against Mr. Chafin. They were: R. W. Emerson, of California; Finley C. Hendrickson, of Maryland; Aaron S. Watkins, of Ohio, and Andrew Jackson Houston, of Texas. Each in turn withdrew his name after the first ballot. Mr. Houston creating enthusiasm by the statement that he would rather receive the lowest vote in the Prohibition convention than the highest in either the Democratic or Republican convention.

The leading candidates against Mr. Watkins for Vice President were Emerson, of California, and George E. Stockwell, of New York. Both of the party candidates were called to the platform and made brief speeches. Mr. Chafin said he regarded his nomination as the greatest political honor bestowed upon any man this year. He thanked the convention for his second nomination and promised not to stand for a third term.

After the nomination of officers the convention was forced to rush its business to a conclusion, as many of the delegates were leaving for their homes. Because of this, the proposal to change the name of the party was not taken up for general discussion and action. A. J. Orem, of Massachusetts, in a brief speech, promised to pledge more money to the campaign fund, should the name be changed.

"I believe we could make the campaign fund double if we should adopt a new name," said Mr. Orem. "We would be greatly aided in carrying our banner to success if we should adopt the name 'Progressive'."

There were many shouts of protest to this, as well as to the name "Conservative party," suggested by the Rev. S. H. Taft, of California. The convention adjourned after a wrangle over a proposed change in the representation on the National Committee. A proposal that instead of each State having two representatives on the National Committee, the representation be according to the size of the Prohibition vote, one member for each 5,000 votes, aroused considerable opposition. The matter was referred to the new National Committee for settlement.

Before the convention was turned over to the National Committee for the campaign fund solicitation, Dr. Silas C. Swallow, of Pennsylvania, sought to reintroduce his resolution urging "perpetual separation of Church and State," and expressing opposition to appropriation of public moneys to sectarian churches and schools. The resolution was tabled by the convention after a long wrangle. Chairman Meade declared that Dr. Swallow was not in order when he proposed the resolution again.

APPEALS COME THROUGH COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT

To Teachers and Trustees:—The proper medium for the settlement of controversies arising between teachers and trustees is the County Superintendent of Schools. Many teachers, trustees and citizens have a custom of writing the State Superintendent of Public Instruction about every little detail of school management. I have no objection to answering these inquiries and it is always a pleasure to render assistance to any school official or citizen interested in the welfare of the school. These requests often state only one side of the question and it is impossible to give a fair decision until we have heard both sides. In view of these facts, I think it wise and just for all trustees, teachers and citizens to submit these questions first to the County Superintendent. When an opinion is needed, the County Superintendent is the proper person to ask for an opinion from the State office. When this is done, he can give both sides of the question and the State office can render an intelligent opinion. Strictly speaking, I have no authority to give an opinion except upon an appeal from the decision of the County Superintendent or upon his request. I desire to make this appeal to all teachers and trustees, to submit your questions first to the County Superintendent, who is the proper person to decide all questions of difference and doubt regarding the schools of his county.

Yours very truly,
 BARKSDALE HAMLETT,
 State Superintendent.

In the days of high cost of living, a medicine that gets a man up out of bed and able to work in a few days is a safe and valuable remedy. John Heath, Michigan Bar, Cal., says: "I had kidney and bladder trouble for nearly six years and was confined to my bed, unable to turn without help. Soon after I commenced using Foley Kidney Pills and was relieved at once." His example is worth following. Foley Kidney Pills will do for others just as much as they have done for John Heath. LORIMER OUSTED FROM THE SENATE

Vote on the Lea Resolution 55 to 28.

PAYNTER AND BRADLEY VOTE

For the Blonde Boss—Closing Scenes of Long Struggle Dramatic.

HE NOW SINKS TO OBLIVION

Washington, July 13.—By a vote of 55 to 28, Senator William Lorimer, of Illinois, was deprived of his seat in the United States Senate today. This judgment of the Senate, closing the fight upon Lorimer, terminated one of the stormiest legislative days that congressional history has known.

From the moment that Senator Dillingham, chief of the Lorimer defenders, began speaking last Saturday until the last vote was cast to-day intense personal feeling has been but thinly veiled. During his speech Lorimer wore a tiny American flag in the buttonhole of his coat.

Loyalty to Lorimer or opposition to him were the lines on which the Senate split. None of the score of speakers minced his words, and spirited speeches of condemnation were made by Senator W. Alden Smith, of Michigan; Senator Luke Lea, of Tennessee; Senator Kenyon, of Iowa; Senator Reed, of Missouri, and Senator Myers, of Montana.

Under the Lorimer standard gathered Senator Jones, of Washington, who last year voted against Lorimer, and Senators Dillingham, Johnston, McCumber, Thornton, Fletcher and Smoot.

All of these were but forerunners of the dramatic climax furnished by Lorimer himself.

Sensors Bradley and Paynter, of Kentucky, voted with the Illinois man.

Compared with the vote of March 1911, when William Lorimer was held to have a valid title to his seat, to-day's roll-call showed the following changes:

Sensors Cullom, of Illinois; Curtis, of Kansas; Briggs, of New Jersey; Watson, of Virginia, and Simmons, of North Carolina, who had formerly supported Lorimer, to-day voted against him.

Senator Jones, of Washington, who had formerly opposed him, to-day supported him.

The end of the long fight came after days of protracted debate, in which Senator Lorimer himself had occupied the floor for three sessions, making an impassioned defense of his election.

The final vote was upon the resolution offered by Luke Lea, Senator from Tennessee, declaring the Lorimer election by the Illinois Legislature in 1909 invalid.

The adoption of the Lea resolution carried with it the Senate's verdict that "corrupt methods and practices were employed in the election of William Lorimer," making his election invalid.

The closing moments of the trial were intensely dramatic. Lorimer holding the floor, making a last defense of his seat, declared he did not appeal for the votes of any Senator, but asked for justice.

Senator Lorimer, when the vote was announced, walked slowly toward the cloak room, Senator Smoot throwing an arm over his shoulder.

The vote ousting him was concluded at 2:05 o'clock. The man who had occupied a seat in the Senate since June 18, 1909, by the vote to-day, passes out of the records and never officially has held a seat in the Senate of the United States.

HERE'S A WHALE STORY— JONAH NEARLY OUTDONE

Boston, Mass., July 13.—Antone Sousa is the hero of the famous world fishing center, the Wharf, Boston Harbor, to-night. He is being toasted from one end of the waterfront to the other, and he is now known as the "Cowboy of the Deep."

Two days ago he went Jonah one better by riding on the back of a whale far out at sea.

The schooner Louis R. Silva came in to-day with a marvelous but true tale. Forty miles southeast of Highland Light the dorymen were surrounded by a school of whales, the most numerous ever seen in this part of the Atlantic. One whale surged up under the dory and capsized it.

Sousa leaped into the sea and landed on the back of the whale. He slid back and forth on the big, slippery surface while the whale sped along the ocean. After 200 yards of a ride, Sousa slipped off close to the side of the schooner. He was picked up by the crew.

So his name is going down in nautical history.

Foley Kidney Pills are healing, strengthening and tonic, and contain no harmful or habit-forming drugs. N. J. Gorham, Cashier Bank of Woodville, Woodville, Ga., recently had an acute attack of kidney trouble. "The pains in my back and kidneys were terrible, but I bought a bottle of Foley Kidney Pills and took them, and can truthfully say they have entirely relieved me. I find more benefit from them than from any other kidney medicine I have ever taken." Try them. Refuse any substitute. For sale by all dealers.

BOLT CARRIES DEATH INTO SOLDIERS' CAMP

Lightning Strikes Mess Tent

of Alabama Boys, Creating Havoc.

Anniston, Ala., July 11.—Charles Kirby and R. Rape are dead and seventeen others are seriously injured as a result of being struck by lightning in their mess tent of Company B, Second Alabama infantry, commanded by Capt. C. H. Seals, of Birmingham, this evening about 6 o'clock.

The injured are Carl R. Jackson, E. V. Lockhart, Herbert Moore, H. I. Leonard, James Jameson, F. Jefferson, W. T. Evans, Leopold Speigler, Samuel Walters, R. R. Parsons, Earl Holcombe, Travis Downing, J. R. Robinson and two negro cooks. M. C. Sullivan, also injured, is not expected to live.

The men were rushed to hospitals immediately after the catastrophe occurred, and were placed under treatment of the surgeons of the regular army.

They suffered agonies, and the scenes were most pitiable. All are from the Birmingham district.

Pandemonium reigned in camp for several hours after the bolt struck. The mess hall was not demolished, although nearly all metal about the structure was melted, including several metal cups.

A metal artillery flag pole, against which one of the members of the camp was leaning, was melted, without injuring the militiaman. A peculiar incident is reported of one of the men injured, in that the print of his hand was left on his leg where the lightning shock was felt.

Although the ambulance corps reported within two minutes after the bolt had struck, it was several hours before all the men were identified. In this work Capt. Seals and Adj. Gen. Schully and Col. Brickenden rendered valuable service, even members of the company being unable to recognize their mates. The men were in the act of signing their pay slips when the fatal stroke came.

In Memoriam.

The scythe of time has cut the brittle thread of life of our neighbor boy, Earl Barnard, who departed this life June 17, 1912. He was nineteen years, four months old. He professed religion when but nine years old and never once doubted his conversion. He was a good son, a true and loyal brother, and was highly esteemed by his associates. His entire life was active and energetic and he will be greatly missed from church and Sunday School, where he was always seen.

Though his voice is forever still and his presence from among us gone forever, yet not even time can efface him from our memory. Great as his life is to us as a friend and associate, greater still is it to those near and dear to him, the surviving parents, brothers and other relatives.

I can only commend them to the Great Omnipotent who doeth all things well, and beseech Him, the giver of every good and perfect gift, to look down on them in tender mercy.

A FRIEND.

MOOSE CALL ISSUED IN SCATHING LANGUAGE

Henderson, Ky., July 11.—All voters, regardless of color, or past party affiliations, who are opposed to officeholders, ringsters and tricksters, thieves and cut-throats, dictating to the people who they shall have as their candidates for office, who are willing to enlist under the banner whose emblem is "Thou shalt not steal," let the people rule.

who favor the teachings of Theodore Roosevelt and condemn the last Republican convention at Chicago, who repudiate the so-called nominee, Wm. H. Taft, meet at the courthouse in Henderson, Ky., Saturday, July 27, at 1:30 p. m., to select delegates to the National convention to meet in Chicago, August 5, called for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice President on the National Progressive ticket.

LIVERMORE IS VISITED BY DESTRUCTIVE FIRE

Livermore, Ky., July 13.—This morning at 2:30 o'clock the store building of D. J. Tucker was discovered by Mrs. I. B. Rowe, who lives adjoining the building, to be on fire and when she gave the alarm the fire had burned away the stairway, thereby cutting off the only passageway for Mr. Tucker and his wife, who were sleeping in a room over the store, and they had to make their exit by way of the front window and down a ladder.

The building and most of the contents were a total loss. The value of the building and stock of groceries was about $1,500, with partial insurance. By the prompt and faithful efforts of the citizens with buckets and hand fire extinguishers they succeeded in confining the fire to the one building.

The Rowe building was connected to the Tucker building, being separated only by two board walls covered with sheet iron. The Colburn building, on the north side of the alley, was damaged so it will require new weatherboarding. Several outbuildings were torn down to prevent the fire from spreading to other buildings.

First Trial of County Units.
 Pulaski and Shelby counties, it appears, probably will be the first counties in the State to vote on local option under the provisions of the county unit law passed during the last session of the Legislature. Petitions for elections have been filed in both and they are likely to be followed by a series of such. Shelbyville does not want prohibition, having tried it once with unsatisfactory results. Somerset is in the same fix, but as each is the only wet spot in its respective county, there is scarcely a doubt that both are in for a lively fight over the matter.

When the bowels feel uncomfortable and you miss the exhilarating feeling that always follows a copious morning operation, a dose of HERBINE will set you right in a couple of hours. If taken at bedtime, you get its beneficial effect after breakfast next day. Price 50c. Sold by Hartford Drug Co., Hartford, Ky., Donovan & Co., Beaver Dam, Ky.

Warning Cards.

The Kentucky law lately passed in regard to the abolishment of the public drinking cup, requires that all stores, hotels, boarding houses, depots and other public places where drinking water is usually kept, shall keep a large card, with the law printed thereon, posted close by said drinking water. The Herald is prepared to furnish these cards at ten cents apiece, by mail or by hand. Better keep within the bounds of the law.

The first verdict of death returned in Todd county in sixty years was that reported when, after twenty-five minutes of consideration, the jury in the case of Isom Taliaferro, a negro, found the defendant guilty of criminal assault.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS
 FOR RHEUMATISM, GRAVEL AND BLANDER

JUST WHAT FEW VOTES COULD DO

In Matter of Electing a President.

CHANGE OF A FEW THOUSAND

In a National Election Would Mean Much in the Final Result.

SOME INSTANCES IN POINT

Taking the popular vote for President in 1908 as a basis, it can be readily calculated how great or how little harm the proposed third party can do to the regular Republican ticket. The nomination of Governor Wilson takes away the probability of a third ticket securing any large number of votes from among the progressive Democrats, and it is hardly possible it will receive any votes from the conservatives of that party. It must depend, then, almost wholly on what votes it can take away from Mr. Taft.

In a number of States the Republican plurality four years ago was quite small, and it will require a loss of only a small percentage of the Republican vote in those States to give them to the Democratic ticket. For example, if the third party can draw away 11 per cent of the Republican vote in Delaware, 3 per cent in Indiana, 2 per cent in Montana, 12 per cent in Ohio and 20 per cent in West Virginia, the electoral votes of those States will go to Wilson, provided he is able to hold the normal Democratic vote.

The progressive sentiment is supposed to be very strong in California, Idaho, Kansas, Maine, North Dakota and Oregon. To take those States away from Taft, the third party will have to poll 40 per cent of the Republican vote in California, 35 per cent in Idaho, 30 per cent in Kansas, 45 per cent in Maine, 45 per cent in North Dakota and 30 per cent in Oregon.

To secure the electoral vote in any State the third party must defeat Taft and Wilson in such State. Thus, to carry California, Connecticut, Idaho, Kansas, Maine, New Hampshire, North Dakota and Oregon, it must receive 60 to 70 per cent of the Republican vote in those States.

Under the system of choosing a President through the medium of electors, it frequently occurs that the change of a very few votes would produce a different result. In 1884 a change of less than 1,000 in the State of New York would have made Blaine and not Cleveland President. In 1888 a change of 30,000 votes divided between certain States would have defeated Harrison and made Cleveland his own successor. It would have required a change of but 35,000, if properly placed, to have made Bryan President in 1896, and a change of 61,000 would have accomplished the same result in 1900. A like change would have given him a majority of the electoral vote as against Taft in 1908.

In 1800 a change of a single electoral vote would have elected Jefferson without leaving it to the House. In 1876 Hayes was declared elected by the joint commission by a majority of but one vote in the Electoral College. New York and Indiana decided the election for Cleveland in 1884 and for Harrison in 1888, and again for Cleveland in 1892. In 1880 the vote of New York would have elected Hancock, and Garfield carried the State by a plurality of only 21,000.—[Washington Post.]

A CLOUD-BURST CAUSES GREAT HAVOC AND DEATH.

St. Louis, July 14.—Four persons were drowned at Alton, Ill., to-day by a cloudburst, which destroyed 2 miles of streets, wrecked six buildings and the gas plant of the Alton Gas & Electric Company, with a total property loss of $250,000.

The cloudburst followed a spectacular storm, which lasted all night. A heavy cloud passed over Alton three times, flooding streets and cellars each time. The third time rain fell in torrents, sending a walk of water nine feet deep through the principal business and residence streets. Sewers broke, washing away the foundations of six residences, which dropped into the cellars. A culvert under the gas plant of the Alton Gas & Electric Company was washed out and the entire plant and gas works were destroyed. That more lives were not lost was due to William Doty, who ran through the streets ahead of the water, breaking windows with his bare hands and awakening sleeping families in time to permit them to reach safety. Many narrow escapes were reported.

A peculiar feature of the storm was the manner in which it hovered over the immediate vicinity of Alton. It was not felt beyond a seven-mile radius.

THE SPLENDID WORK DONE AT BALTIMORE

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: The Enquirer can congratulate the country, as well as the Democratic party, upon the work of the National Convention at Baltimore. The progressive majority in that convention placed the party in full accord with the political sentiment of the people of the United States, and freed the party, we hope forever, from influences that have for years been detrimental to the interests of the public.

The delegates who stood together in this work of progressivism as written in the platform and guaranteed by the nominations of Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall, deserve the thanks of all the citizens of the United States for their devotion to the interests of the masses of the people.

The Democratic party has once more proved its right to possess the confidence of the voters. It has met the issues of the day with courage, discussed them openly and boldly and proposes to solve them for the people, by the people, in the interests of the people.

It is the party of progress once more as it was in the days of Jefferson; it is the party of the masses as it was in the days of Jackson, standing firm in defense of the people's rights.

Whatever reason there was for the formation of a progressive party after the disruption of the Republican party at Chicago last month, that reason no longer exists, for the Democratic party offers to the advanced thought of the nation a platform and candidates that cannot fail to win support and commendation.

The enormous independent vote of the United States has now been presented to it men of acknowledged integrity, the utmost firmness and recognized ability, as candidates for the highest offices in the land, and these candidates and their party are free from the stranglehold of bosses and the malign influences of monopolistic interests.

The Democratic party appeals through its platform and its candidates to the intelligence and the patriotism of the people of the Union and it pledges them progress with safety, advancement with security, honest administration for all and special privileges to none.

There is now no room for a third great political organization.

The Republican party may require reformation since the affairs of the Chicago Convention, but the Democratic delegates at Baltimore made the alignment for progressivism so clear, clean and complete that their party meets fully the demands of popular sentiment throughout the Union.

MUCH OIL IN KENTUCKY— THE OHIO COUNTY FIELD

The Frankfort State Journal says:

The bringing in of a 200-barrel gusher in Ohio county should cause a renewal of interest in the oil business in Western Kentucky. There is small reason for doubting that there is much good oil territory in that part of the State as well as in Eastern Kentucky. Some of this territory already is under lease, but in a great portion of it no very satisfactory tests have been made. Kentucky some years ago had an oil boom, but it was overshadowed by bigger discoveries in other fields. There is no lack of opportunity for investments along that line and there is enough proven territory to make the State an important oil-producer for many years to come. By and by, when some of the oleaginous booms elsewhere subside, Kentucky will come into her own.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the numerous neighbors and friends who so willingly assisted in the diligent search for the body of our son and brother, Earl Barnard, who was drowned in Green river June 17. We appreciate this immensely, and wish to express our thanks for the very generous assistance and comforting words, both at the river and at home. We are very thankful for this, both as a matter of assistance in recovery of his body and consolation to us, but more especially as a mark of respect to Earl.

We ask that you accept our sincere thanks and we pray for God's blessing, and reward to you, for such Christian assistance can only be rewarded by the Supreme Power. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. and H. G. Barnard.

Not An Eggs-aggeration.

The Herald is indebted to Mr. Ben Thomas, of Beaver Dam, by the hands of Mr. Harvey Tichenor, for a peculiar freak in a hen's egg. We have frequently seen an egg with two yolks, but the one sent The Herald by Mr. Thomas is peculiar in that it is a complete egg within an egg. In other words, the inner and outer egg each has a well developed shell, the outer being a shade the thinner shell.

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women.

Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.

VAST CAVE DISCOVERED IN SOUTHERN ARIZONA

Explorers Fail To Reach End
—Stalactitic Formations Beautiful.

Nogales, Ariz., July 12.—One of the most wonderful caves in the world has been found in Southern Arizona. Unnamed, unexplored and almost unknown is the vast cavern. Only a few persons have dared enter to view its grandeur and to study the wondrous work of nature.

The cave lies in the foothills of the Hunchua Mountains, about 40 miles northwest of Nogales, Santa Cruz county. Exploring parties have entered and spent days inside but none have ever discovered the end.

They report passageways, rooms and chambers innumerable, some enormous in size, of transparent stalactitic columns. One room has a level and smooth floor and they called it the dance hall and others have unfathomed pits and chasms.

One party returning here to-day said that immense stalactite columns extending from roof to floor may be seen on either side of the entrance. As they proceeded on the downward journey the formations became more interesting, until they found themselves in a labyrinth of passages resembling hallways, windows or entrances in other rooms or chambers, in which appear stalactites in thin sheets, round, square, and in fact in almost all shapes conceivable, from a few inches to 30 feet in length.

In the first chamber a most beautiful stalactite rises from the floor to about twenty feet in height, and stands out independent and alone in all its silent splendor. Others can be seen, and have their individual beauty, but they do not compare with this monarch.

Of the discovery little is known. That McCarty, of Canile, was perhaps the first local explorer of the cave. On one of his trips he found the skeleton of a man lying on a shelf, which readily crumbled on being handled. Some Indian pottery and beads have been found, samples of which are on exhibition at the Tucson University.

DELIGHTFUL OCCASION IN A SOUTHERN HOME

On June 24th, Mrs. Charlie Ferguson, of near Obion, Tenn., celebrated her 50th birthday in honor of the Baptist Ladies Aid of which she is a member. Also a number of other friends and neighbors and her father, R. T. Her, of Hartford, Ky., and a sister and two children from Princeton, Ind. A wagon was sent in from the country home place and loaded up with women and children. Jno. H. Harmon had another wagon loaded up the same way, while buggies carried the rest. The number was between 50 and 60 and all the guests did not get there. The day was cool and delightful and every one from the youngest to the oldest seemed filled with love and good cheer. A large table was spread under the protecting limbs of the grand old monarchs of the forest and seemed almost to groan and give way under the load of good things to satisfy a vigorous appetite and was fit for any king or queen of any earthly realm. Enough and to spare for all, including the group of old-time darlings. After the repast came a beautiful religious service conducted by Rev. Hendrick, the State evangelist, and her pastor, Rev. W. A. Gaugh. They spoke in eloquent terms of the genial hostess and the day of joy and gladness she had furnished to her guests and then after a sweet prayer of blessing, she was placed before the happy throng and while the sweet words of "God Be With Us Till We Meet Again" were carried out toward heaven on the wings of the air, each one gave to our friend a warm greeting and hand-clasp. The scene of sweet friendship between loved ones and neighbors touched the flood-gates of our souls and we shed tears of true joy. The day shall never die within our memory and afar down the roadside of life, we will often think and speak of this sweet, happy day. It was the wish of the hostess to entertain her friends in the old sweet southern way, without any presents expected and yet many beautiful gifts were bestowed upon this affable and loving hostess and all present wished her many happy returns of the same day, as the clock of old "Father Time" ticks off our little life and then the great eternal Sabbath of the soul where we shall never say goodbye.

Mail Carriers Will Fly.

This is an age of great discoveries. Progress rides on the air. Soon we may see Uncle Sam's mail carriers flying in all directions, transporting mail. People take a wonderful interest in a discovery that benefits them. That's why Dr. King's New Discovery for coughs, colds and other throat and lung diseases is the most popular medicine in America. "It cured me of a dreadful cough," writes Mrs. J. F. Davis, Stickney Corner, Me., "after doctor's treatment and all other remedies had failed." For coughs, colds or any bronchial affection it's unequalled. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at James H. Williams.

Equal Suffrage was eliminated as an issue in the General Federation of Women's Clubs, in convention at San Francisco, when a motion that the convention go on record in favor of suffrage was ruled out of order.
